HIGHLIGHT OF THE DAY: PRELIMINARY POOL II IN BELGRADE (SCG)

Spain is the surprising second semifinalist from Pool II after Wednesday action in Belgrade. On the last day of the preliminary round almost everything was still possible. France had the best chances but when Serbia & Montenegro defeated the French team 3:2 the road was open for Spain. Spain's 3:1 victory over the Netherlands sufficed to capture the last ticket to Rome. In other action Greece defeated the Czech Republic 3:1.

Playing the first match of the day Spain won and waited... Their first job, namely beating the Netherlands, wasn't too difficult. Following a nervous start where Spain lost the first set 21-25, they significantly improved their play, but were also helped by the many mistakes from the opposing side. Finally clinching the 3:1 victory Spain had to wait for the final match result between Serbia & Montenegro and France.

"It's a big satisfaction for us that we have come so far in the tournament", stated Spanish coach Oscar Novillo. "I am extremely happy that this is the first competition where we have a chance of seizing a medal", Spanish captain Rafael Pascual said.

Spanish Guillermo Falasca and Dutch Robert Horstink were the best players with 17 points each.

With this result in mind France knew that it had to win against Serbia & Montenegro to reach the Final Four of the strongest volleyball tournament in Europe. However, the 2003 silver medallist failed to achieve this task, although they weren't far away. After losing the first set France won the second and third set, being close to a surprise. But Serbia & Montenegro fought back, also thanks to the support from the almost 12'000 fans in the Belgrade Arena. In presence of Serbia & Montenegro President Boris Tadic and Nenad Bogdanovic, Lord Mayor of Belgrade, the home team finally captured the match 15-9 in the tiebreak set, setting an end to the Frenchmen's hopes and confirming Spain's spot in the Final Four.

"It looks as if we have a season ticket for losing tiebreaks", French coach Philippe Blain joked, "It's amazing that we have finished only fourth in the group. We won two matches, but lost the other three 2:3. That was the end of our dream."

Ivan Miljkovic was by far the best player with 32 points. On French side Ludovic Castard booked 19 points.

Following the Serbs' victory Spain was able to celebrate their place in the semifinals. In The President of the Spanish Federation in particular, i.e. Agustin Martin Santos, as well as Technical Director Luis Muchaga expressed their delight. Spain changed their technical staff not long before the Indesit European Championship. With the new coach Novillo and extremely motivated players Spain finally reached their ultimate dream, playing in the semifinals of the Indesit European Championship.

"Our dream has come true", stated Oscar Novillo stated, "This is the reward for all the work that we have done."

In other Wednesday action Greece defeated the Czech Republic 3:1. The match was important for both teams regarding the final classification in Pool II, as the number three in this group is automatically qualified for the 2007 European Championship. After a long and difficult encounter Greece finally took the victory, pushing the Czechs back to fifth position. Greece reached their goal by finishing third. Czech captain Martin Lebl, who injured himself during Monday's training session, also had to pass on Wednesday's match against Greece.

"I am satisfied that we won against a strong team like the Czech Republic", Greek captain Marios Gkiourdas said, "With this victory we reached our target, namely finishing amongst the best three in the group."

"We didn't have the power for a good finish", Czech coach Laurent Tillie said, "We were close to the semifinals but now we are only fifth in the group, which is very disappointing for us."

Greek Ilias Lappas was the best scorer with 18 points.
