MATCH OF THE DAY: ITALY CAPTURES THIRD STRAIGHT SET VICTORY

The first set between host Italy and another Final Four favourite Poland already promised spectacular volleyball with one team capping the other on attack. Whilst Alessandro Fei, Alberto Cisolla and team captain Valerio Vermiglio pointed for Italy, Poland responded with Sebastian Swiderski and Mariusz Wlazly. Although the latter managed to defend Italy's first set point (24-24), local number 18 Matej Cernic attacked with success, thus providing Italy with another opportunity to seal the first set (24-25). Poland's best scorer, 22-year-old Mariusz Wlazly, of all people, failed in attack, presenting Italy with the first set (24-26).

The second set was just as exciting. Even though the Polish team took a three-point lead (16-13), the Italians managed to fight back successfully thanks to Alberto Cisolla who scored several times to turn the table in Italian favour (16-17). At 18-17 for the Ukraine the 'ragazzi' scored four points in a row: first Alessandro Fei, then a block by Luca Tencati, which was followed by two smash points from Matej Cernic (18-21). Mariusz Wlazly resisted bravely (20-21), but the Italians kept their cool with Luca Tencati capturing the second set point (22-25).

In the third set Alessandro Fei was mainly responsible for his team's 21-18 lead after scoring on attack as well as standing strong in block. The Poles made the Italians' life on court a little easier by increasingly committing mistakes, especially on serve. Mariusz Wlazly scored to shorten the Italians' four-point lead by one (19-23) but couldn't prevent the local favourites from winning the next two points: Alessandro Fei's clean spike and Luigi Mastrangelo's killing block on match point (19-25).

Best scorer of the match was Alberto Cisolla scoring 20 points, whilst Mariusz Wlazly booked 14 points for Poland.

"I'm sorry for having lost", stated Poland's team captain Piotr Gruszka at the following press conference, "we definitely lost an opportunity. Congratulations to Italy however and we hope to improve." Poland's head coach Raul Lozano thought that his team didn't perform as well as yesterday against Russia: "We weren't as good in attack today. But then again, Italy played very strong, especially on serve." Italian captain Valerio Vermiglio was very pleased with the home crowd (9'200 spectators), giving them a lot of credit: "They were much better than during the World League Final last year. We hope to go on as we are playing now and to do our best." Italian head coach Gian Paolo Montali was very satisfied seeing his efforts as a coach being paid off. "Being a coach is very difficult", he stated, "the more satisfying it is when your team plays great against such a strong opponent."
